*1991 Capital City Distribution Survey

AKIRA - 1989

(Running time: 124 minutes)
$29.95

Based on the popular graphic novel drawn and written by Katsuhiro Otomo, this animated feature film is considered to be the most dynamic example of contemporary SF animation to come from Japan. Exotic images, brilliant music and complex science fiction storytelling combine to make this a truly unique film.

LENSMAN - 1984

(Running time: 107 minutes)
$29.95

If 'AKIRA' can be described as the "Blade Runner" of animation, then without doubt, 'LENSMAN' surely can be compared to "Star Wars". Based on characters created by noted SF author E.E. "Doc" Smith, 'LENSMAN' is a fully-realized tale of action and romance set against the backdrop of an intergalactic war. A totally entertaining film filled with non-stop action and adventure.

SPECTACULAR ANIMATION
combined with high-end
COMPUTER GRAPHICS!

available now...$29.95 ea.

ROBOT CARNIVAL

running time: 90 minutes

Showcasing the work of nine Japanese animators, ROBOT CARNIVAL has been called a cyberpunk FANTASIA and Japan's HEAVY METAL. AKIRA's Katsuhiro Otomo opens and closes the show with a mind-boggling animated tour-de-force. Highlights include "Presence", "A Tale of Two Robots" and "Nightmare". A sophisticated visual treat.

PLANET BUSTERS

running time: 80 minutes

On a forgotten planet, a boy, a girl, two bounty hunters and an army of death-dealing robots come together for one of the wildest animated features of all time.

One wild chase after another leads our heroes on a journey to solve one of the greatest mysteries in the Universe.

Available for a limited time only!

WINDARIA

running time: 95 minutes

An epic fantasy set in a world destined to be destroyed by love and greed. Dramatic animation and powerful images place WINDARIA in a class all by itself. An exciting and bitter-sweet story which takes place amid the backdrop of a brutal civil war.

WINDARIA is a classic example of storytelling by the masters of Japanese animation.

They came from the Past

COLONEL BLEEP

Created in 1956 and produced by a small studio in Miami, FL, COL. BLEEP was a milestone in television animation - the first original TV cartoon produced in color. Making creative use of limited animation, these shows remain delightful examples of pop nostalgia!

CLUTCH CARGO

The first cartoon produced using the patented "Synchro-Vox" process - which super-imposed live lips atop simple animation characters. Billed as television's first animated comic strip, CLUTCH CARGO served up daily cliff-hanging adventures and innocent humor.

SPACE ANGEL

This SF adventure took the Synchro-Vox process to the far flung reaches of the Galaxy, showcasing the adventures of Scott McCloud - also known as "Space Angel". The elegant design and direction by famed comic artist ALEX TOTH makes the series a true classic!

Five volumes of each series are planned as part of Streamline Pictures' ongoing efforts to preserve and revive vintage animation classics.

Currently available: volumes #1 & 2 of each series @ $14.95 per volume.
